FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

INDIANAPOLIS MAN SENTENCED FOR BANK ROBBERY

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that DANIEL ELLIOTT, 38, Indianapolis, Indiana, was sentenced to 114 months imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge Larry J. McKinney following his guilty pleas to armed bank robbery and brandishing a firearm during a crime of violence. This case was the result of a investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Marion County Sheriff's Department.

ELLIOTT admitted robbing the Bank One branch at 8120 South Meridian Street, Indianapolis, on Election Day (November 2) last year. During the robbery, ELLIOTT pointed a .380 semi-automatic handgun at tellers and escaped with $7,987.00 in currency. ELLIOTT fled the bank on foot and was picked up by his co-defendant in a truck. Police officers identified and followed the two robbers shortly after the robbery. After a brief chase through streets on the south side of Indianapolis, both men were apprehended by police.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Susan Heckard Dowd, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge McKinney also imposed five years supervised release following ELLIOTT's release from imprisonment.
